August 25, 2020 | PRESS RELEASES

JACKSONVILLE, FL – On Aug. 25, 2020, Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP Partner Barbara Coccio served as a panelist in a webinar for the CFO Leadership Council. The webinar titled, "Bankers... Creating a Friend, not Foe, in your Important Advisors," discussed the importance of cultivating critical relationships from a business perspective. These vital team members include a company's attorney, accountant, financial advisor, and outsourced CFO services provider.

Barbara represents clients connected with complex commercial real estate transactions, including sales, acquisitions, and financing of apartment complexes, resorts, hotels, and retail shopping centers. She assists in complex matters involving financing real estate bonds through bond offerings. She represents financial institutions in commercial and residential loan closings, foreclosures, loan restructurings, and REO sales.

About The CFO Leadership Council

Founded in 2006, The CFO Leadership Council began as an informal gathering of finance executives who wanted to build lasting connections with their peers in a comfortable, confidential setting. The close community includes 27 chapters and nearly 2,000 members who actively drive the organization through feedback and insight.
