

Laura L. Spring Assumes Role as President of the Onondaga County Bar Association

June 1, 2024 | PRESS RELEASES

Lippes Mathias is proud to announce that Laura L. Spring, a member of the firm's employment practice team in its new Syracuse office, has assumed the role of president of the Onondaga County Bar Association after serving as president-elect for the past year.

Spring, also a member of the firm's health law practice team, is versed in all aspects of employment law, representing clients in federal and state administrative agencies and federal and state courts, arbitrations, and mediations. She represents a myriad of small and medium-sized businesses to ensure compliance with various discrimination laws, wage and hour issues, corporate compliance, and human resources management. Laura negotiates employment contracts, separation agreements, severance agreements, non-competition agreements, and shareholder and partnership agreements for individuals, executives, physicians, employers, and employees. With over 30 years of litigation experience, she has handled and been involved in numerous complex commercial litigations. Laura also represents licensed professionals before the Office of Professional Misconduct, the Office of Professional Discipline, and other administrative agencies.
